

FOURTH ITEM ON THE AGENDA

Complaint concerning the non-observance by Colombia of the Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and the Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), made by delegates to the 86th (1998) Session of the Conference under article 26 of the Constitution of the International Labour Organization

1. At its meeting in May-June 2000, the Committee on Freedom of Association examined and adopted a set of conclusions and recommendations in Cases Nos. 1787, 1948, 1955, 1962, 1964, 1973, 2015, 2046 and 2051, concerning Colombia, and noted that a further complaint had been presented (Case No. 2068). The Committee also adopted a recommendation concerning the complaint made under article 26 of the ILO Constitution, which can be found in paragraph 159 of its 322nd report.
2. At the present session the Committee on Freedom of Association has presented a further report to the Governing Body on these questions.<sup>1</sup>
3. The Governing Body is invited to decide what effect should be given to the complaint made under article 26 of the Constitution.

Geneva, 14 June 2000.

Point for decision: Paragraph 3.
